Abbey's Desert Solitaire

"Water"

Worksheet

Instructions:

1. Record a quote from this chapter that resonates with you.
2. Record examples of all the forms water takes in the desert.
3. Record an example of one of Abbey's desert survival tips related to water.

Choose One:

4. Record an example of his use of sensory detail, imagery, and/or humor.
5. Record an example of a desert epiphany he describes—a moment of heightened experience. In what other writers has the "epiphany" played a key role in their encounters with nature? Be specific.
6. What are some of the perils he describes related to water?
7. What survival tips does he provide re: quicksand?
8. How does his writing achieve a heightened effect in the final paragraph?
